OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

(Special Dispatch to the Toronto Leader.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—There was a large attendance in the Senate to-day. When the Governor General came, the galleries were crowded and many privileged strangers were present on the floor, among them being congressman Pruyn, of Albany. Nearly all the senators were in their places. Chief Justice Richards and other members of the judiciary, with the Roman Catholic Bishop of Ottawa and several clergymen and ladies, occupied seats on the floor. Outside were many ladies in the gallaries in full dress, and gentlemen in evening costume, but this style was not general. Outside the House, the carriage way, from the outer gate to the main entrance, was lined with volunteers and regular troops, and in front of the entrance, a guard of honor of the Rifle Brigade was drawn up.

His Excellency drove from the Execuserv ces as returning officer in the election tive Council office in a state carriage, of Councillor for James Bay Ward accompanied by Lieutenant-Governor Stisted and Generals Wyndham and Russell. At the door, he was met by m ny officers of the regular forces and volunteers, who formed a numerous staff and followed him to the Chamber.

His Excellency having ascended the throne the gentleman usher of the black rod, M. Rene Kimber, proceeded to the bar of the House of Commons, and informed the House that his Excellency required their attendance in the Senate Chamber. The members of the House of Commons, headed by the clerk, Mr. W. B. Lindsay, accordingly attended at the bar of the Senate, and were informed by Hon. Mr. Cauchon, Speaker of the Senate, that his Excellency desired him to state, that as soon as they had elected their Senates. their Speaker, his Excellency would declare to them for what reason he had convoked Parliament, and that he would come down to-morrow at three o'clock for that purpose.

In the House of Commons the attend. ance was large. Before three o'clock 156. members were sworn in by the clerk, who called them to order when the message was received from the Governer General. They were absent in the Senate Chamber only a few minutes. On returning, the clerk again took the chair.

Since last session a change has taken place in the arrangement of the desks, which instead of running lengthwise along the chamber, are now in rows on either side of the Speaker's chair, those in the rear being elevated according to their distance from it. The first seat on the right of the chair is a single one for the use of leeder of the Government, and that on the left for the leader of the Opposition. Besides these there are six double desks on the front row and seven on all the other rows, so that there are desks altogether for 194 members, 13 more than are required until the other provinces join the confederation. Among those on the front row to the right of the speaker were, Sir John Macdonald, Messrs. Cartier, Tilley, Howland, Chauveau, McGee, Dunkin and Rose. Mr. McDougall and other members of the ministry occupied seats on the second row.

Mr. Sandfield Macdonald took the seat of leader of the opposition to day, but of course does not intend to occupy that position in regard to the government. seat was assigned to Mr. Howe, but he declined to take it, and Mr Sandfield next, and the clerk was instructed to Macdonald, who has occupied the same position in the House for 15 or 20 years except when in government, decided again to take it. On the same row were Messes Dorion, Holton, Mackenzie, Angliu, A. J. Smith, and Howe fifth from Mr Sandfield Macdonald and Huntingdon, Many ministerialists had, of course to take seats on the opposition side. After returning from the Senate, the House sat only 20 minutes. No opposition was offered to Mr. Cockburn for Speaker, but it is known there is a good deal of ob jection to him in different quarters. This has not arisen on personal grounds, but because the belief prevails that the lower provinces were entitled to at least, one of the chairs—that of Senater of the House of Commons. Mr. Gray, of New Bruns-wick was the choice of many ministerialists . but the fact that Mr. Cockburn had done good service for the government and had made sacrifices on its behalf outweighed the claims of Mr. Gray, and made him the choice of the Government. He is well versed in parlimentary law, courteous and agreeable in manner, and is personally highly popular on both sides of the House. He will fill the chair with the dignity of a gentleman and, I am persuaded, the impartiality of a judge.

The display to day, although fine, will be excelled by that of to-morrow, when Lord Monck will come down to deliver the Speech from the Throne.

CHANGES—The Hon Mr Galt has retired from the Cabinet. His withdrawal is setribute I to the failure of the Commercial Bank, bute I to the failure of the Commercial Bank, in which he was interested. His place in the Privy Council will be taken temporarily by Mr Howland. Mr Tilley has been spoken of in connection with the office, and also Mr Rose, but nothing is yet decided.

On the 18th of September three English artillery officers-Captains Webber, Hubberd and Anderson-arrived in Constantinople, with instructions to purchase mules in the Levent as quickly as possible for the Abyssinian expedition. Captain Hubbard left immediately for Gallipoli. Through some misconception, arising from their having rifles in their possession, Captains Webt er and Hubbard were detained on their way out by the local authorities at Rustelluk for some days—a detention extremely vexations under the circumstances.

If Governor Seymour has really (as is asserted by the Canadian News) sent a cable telegram to London anthe Seat of Government at Victoria, and one which, as the News remarks, will give great satisfaction to nineare constrained to add that had the announcement been made a year ago the Colony would have been in a dition than it is found to-day, and New Westminster have derived real benefit therefrom, for it is quite apparent to all here that the state of uncertainty which has prevailed at that town since Union was proclaimed has been productive of injury to its business men, who are led by the fallacious reasoning of their local journals into the belief that the removal of the Seat of Government to any other spot will inflict a deathblow to their interests. The absurdity of this idea must be evident to any unprejudiced person who will take the trouble to consider the question for a moment. That the attempt to fix the Seat of Government at New Westminster has resulted disastrously for the Colony, the poverty of the public money-chest furnishes the most conclusive testimony, and that the attempt has wrought a positive injury to New Westminster is a conviction that is every day growing stronger. Only yesterday our river cotemporaries came to us filled with complaints against the Surveyor General for not working impossibilities; and one of the papers (the vulgar Columbian) indulges in the charitable wish that that official might stick in one of the holes which his "negligence" has suffered to multiply in the Burrard Inlet road. The condition of that road, we are credibly informed, is positively awful It is nine miles in length, and the salvation of the traffic now enjoyed by New Westminster with the mills at the head of the Inlet depends upon its being kept in repair. Ten thousand dollars are required now to be expended before it can be rendered travelable with security for life and limb. But what can the Surveyor General do with an empty Treasury ?-an emptiness for which the very journals that have united in denouncing him are responsible for. Had those papers listened to reason last spring, and offered no opposition to the removal of the Capital to Victoria and a retrenchment in every branch of the public service, for which a majority of the popular members so carnestly and ably pleaded, no complaints would be heard to-day of a loss of business by New Westminster traders because the Burrard Inlet road is impassable. No There would not only be in the Treasury $10,000 for that desired object, but a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of every other necessary public work. It was only the other week that a wail ascended from the same papers because Pilots are nuthorized to charge a higher rate for bringing vessels to New Westminster than they are allowed to charge for taking them to Victoria, Esquimalt or Burrard Inlet; yet the channel of the Fraser has shifted, and the Government, which, to satisfy New Westminster popular clamor, has maintained two Land and two Registration Offices, two Colonial Post Offices, two Colonial Gaols, an Assay Office, three Colonial Secretaries, &c., &c , has no funds wherewith to relay the buoys. The improvement of the navigation of the Fraser to Yale has long been a den sirable object; but the Government has no money and New Westminster is deprived, for at least three months in the year, of steam communication with the upper country. Persistently closing their eyes and their ears to "stubborn facts," the people at the Capital have demanded that two dollars shall be expended in the government of the country where one dollar would have sufficed, and are ashes" and mourning over the trade which their perverseness has driven from their doors. New Westminster has thrived upon the trade it has on-joyed with Burrard Inlet. The presence of ships there, with the money

their crews have spent, has proved of local trade derived from the expenditure within its limits of a few thousand dollars per annum by officials. Yet the foolish people of that unhappy little town have insisted upon the adoption of a line of policy that has made the support of two establishments necessary when, had the public offices been brought to Victoria, one-half of the expense would have been saved the Colony, and sufficient money left to not only repair the roads now in existence, but to intersect the Colony with new thoroughfares, as well as to improve river navigation and render the carriage of freight in steamboats less expensive and attended with less risk than now. To this policy they have been committed throughout, and to this policy nouncing his intention of establishing they still adhere. They wilfully avoid a knowledge of the fact that they are he has arrived at a very wise decision | committing commercial suicide. Carried away with a fallacious notion that if the Capital be removed the tenths of the colonists, although we place will "cave," they demand that the interests of the whole country shall be sacrificed to their short-sightedness and presumption. much more favorable financial con- Their whole course has been as selfish and grasping as that of Victoria has been disinterested and generous. Victoria has never rested her claims to the Capital upon " public faith and honor," (although had she chosen to urge her right to it upon that ground her title would be indisputable), but she has asked that it be located here as a matter of economy and convenience. Local considerations have never been placed in the scale, nor have they carried weight with her public men. The good of the whole Colony has been sought. Here the LARGE ADDITIONS Capital must, sooner or later, by the force of circumstances, gravitate, New Westminster opposition to the contrary notwithstanding; and if the miserable short-sighted policy of the residents of the town should continue to cut it off from communication with the upper country several months of each year, should destroy its shipping interests by preventing the relaying of the buoys, and, by placing it out of the power of the Government to furnish means for improving the road to Burrard Inlet, promote the establishment of a rival town there to supply the local demand, and ultimately, that of the lower river, the fault will lie at their own doors, and not at that of the Governor, or the Surveyor General or the people of Victoria.

The Late Ball.

VICTORIA, Dec. 11, 1867

EDITOR COLONIST : - I notice in your yesterday's issue a letter signed Robt. Williams, M. A., Cantab. While agreeing somewhat with the spirit which dictated that letter, I would ask Robt. Williams to take a suppositious case: That half a dozen or eight gentlemen, a little more enthusiastic than the ordinary run of the recipients of naval hospitality, club together to invite the Admiral and his officers to a ball, in return for his efforts at social amenities; that these six cr eight decide on the emount as which the thing could be done; and by easy calculation find hew many gentlemen, raying $10, will cover the expense; that each of the committee, self-constituted, wish to have his friends present; further, that Robt. Williams was probably not personally known to this Committee, and that many, if known, were not relished by all the Committee. In a word, let Mr Williams, for public, substitute the term " private " demonstration; and let him, and as many as will join him, get up a see nd entertainment, then I think his own feelings will be soothed, much misapprehension probably removed, and the Admiral and the Fleet delighted by another of a series of invitations by hospitable citizens. In conclusion, I was not invited though I might, perhaps, have gone had I wished. I am opposed to scobbishness as much as the M. A.; but think I can find a solution as I have put it, and write because there are two sides to most questions.

Holloway's Pills .- Excellent Revivers .-Holloway's Pills.—Excellent Revivers.—
The resources of medicine and chemistry were long and fruitlessly tried before they yielded a remedy which could overcome disorders of the stomach and nerves, till Professor Holloway discovered his purifying and tonic Pills. They are the safest and surest correctives of indigestions, heartburn, flatuelency, torpidity of the liver, twitchings, mervous fancies, despondency, low spirits, and declining strength. Holloway's Pills suncr-ede all erroneous actions in the body, and spirits, and decining strength. Holloway's Pilis super-ede all erroneous actions in the body, and so strengthen and support the system, that discase departs, and leaves the paient little, if at all shaken This is the grand aim and object of medical art—to regulate disordered functions without damaging the constitution by the remedy, and admirably is this end attained by Holloway's Pills.

Flatulency, Sour Stomach, and Heartburn are the warnings given by nature of approaching dyspepsia and liver complaint. Avert the danger by using Bristol's Sugar coated Pills. They invigorate the liver, tone and strengthen the stomach, and enable the bowels to perform their functions with case and regularity. Occasional doses of Bristot's Sarsaparilla will greatly hasten a cure.

MARRIED.

On the 5th inst., at St. Mary's Church, Sapperton, by the Right Rev. the lord Bishop of Columbia, assisted by the Rev. William Edward Hayman, the Rev. Jordayno Cave Browne-Cave, seventh son of the late Thomus Cave-Browne-Cave, Eq.. of Cliff Hall, Warwickshire, and grandson of the late Sir William Cave Browne-Cave, Bart., of libretton-en-le-Field, Leicestershire, to Charlotte, relict of Edward Wright, Esquire, late of Penzance, Cornwall.

THE BROWN-WHYMPER EXPEDITION TO THE INTERIOR OF GREENLAND .- Our readers are already aware that Dr Brown, formerly of the Vancouver Island Exploring Expedition, and Edward Whymper, the celebrated Alpine traveller, had been started with the view of making an attempt at exploring the interior of Greenland, by means of dog sleds starting from the west coast, in the hope of finding an extensive region free from ice and snow, and really deserving the somewhat paradoxical name of the country.' It is well known that the reindeer, which are very abundant in Greenland, go into the interior in the spring, and return fat and good condition and it is supposed that they have access during the summer to good pasturage. The latest news published from Whymper and Brown, is dated July 19, from Jacobshavn, a village on Disco Bay, in latitude 69, well known to the readers of the travels of Kane and Hayes, and selected as being the most northerly point where an outfit could be obtained. They write that after many difficulties, they were about to start that night (the sun being well abo e the horizon at midnight), having with them a Scotchman, a Nerwegian, a Dane, a halt Dane and a Greenlander, with 21 dogs and three sledges They had been much troubled with sickness among the people, and also among the dogs, which interfered greatly with the outfit and caused much delay. Their collections amounted to a large number of stone implements and other Esquimaux curiosities, many plants, and a fair collection of animals. Owing to the many obstacles resulting from the circumstances referred to, they were not very sanguire of success during the present season, but were determined to make the attempt. Of late years epidemic diseases have been very prevalent among the Indians and Esquimaux of Arctic America, measles and influenzas especially, to such an extent as almost to threaten depopulation. It is estimated that one-tenth of the population of the Mackenzie river region died from these causes a few years ago, and a greater or less mortality has prevailed ever since. At this rate it will not be long before the country will become uninhabited, and we may then consider the pages of Arctic discovery as about closed, as, except on the immediate coast, exploration becomes impossible without the aid of the E-quimaux and their dogs.

THE GREAT SHIP RACE.—The whole of clipper ships engaged in the race from China to London having arrived, it may be interesting to learn the time taken by each of them in the contest:-Ariel, 102 days; Taeping, 102; Fiery Cross, 110; estly desired. Flying Spur, 115; Maitland, 116; Taitsing, 118; Black Prince, 118; Serica, 119; Ziba, 120; Yang Tsze, 120; Chinaman, 123. The Ariel, it should be mentioned, met with three days' detention in the chops of the Channel, and some of the first page. others met with very tempestuous weather, losing spars, sails, and sustaining other damage by shipping heavy seas. One of them reports seeing a vessel go down with all hands. The cargoes of teas they brought over were as follow :-The Ariel, 1,268,960lbs.; Taeping, 1,-136,961lbs; Fiery Cross, 940,510lbs; Flying Spur, 949,716lbs; Maitland, 1, 198,708lbs; Taitsing, 1,098,310lbs; Black Prince, 1,163,114lbs; Serica, 1,-030,525lbs; Ziba, 742,207lbs; Yang Tsze, 875,972lbs; Chinaman, 856,576lbs.

THE IRISH CATHOLIC CHURCH -An important announcement is made by the Cork Examiner (of which Mr Maguir, M. P., is the proprietor and principa editor). That journal publishes an article, from the summary of which it appears that the late meeting of Roman Catholic prelates in synod at Dublin decided not to | Heywood's New Sugar-Cured Hams accept a share of the Established Church revenues in case it should be offered to them. They were equally opposed to a distinct and separate endowment, and will not even accept a grant for glebes and churches. A minority, we are told, were favourable to this last proposition. The meeting is said to have been summoned buys them, because they are good. Now on account of inquiries addressed on the mind, be sure and make no mistake; it is in the part of the Government, through the fire-proof Brick Store, next door to the Lord Stanley to Cardinal Antonelli, as to Old Original Coffee Stand. whether the Irish prelates would accept endowment. A report of the discussions endowment. A report of the discussions will, it is added, be promulgated when it Paris the Latest Novelties in Ladies' has been approved at Rome.

DEATH OF THE EDITOR OF "BELL'S Pare."-Frank L. Dowling, Esq., the editor of Bell's Life, died on Thursday morning, at 4 o'clock, at Norfolk street, Strand, after a lingering illness. Deceased, who was barrister-at-law, would have attained his 44th year on Friday .- Despatch, Oct. 13th.

END OF THE TAILORS' STRIKE.—The tailors' strike in London, which has extended over about seven months, is at an end, the men having submitted unconditionally to the masters' terms.

FROM BURRARD INLET-The steamer Isabel. . having in tow the ship Lightfoot, laden with 300,000 feet of lumber for Sydney, Australia, arrived yesterday afternoon. The Isabel will tow the ship Trebolgan to the Inlet to-FIRNDISH OUTRAGE-On Wednesday night two sailors belonging to the British bark Mercara met a squaw on the bridge across the ravine, leading from Cormorant to Johnson streets, and without the slightest provocation seized and hurled her from the railing of the structure into the ravine, a fall of 20 feet. The force of the poor creature's fall was broken by falling into the mud and water, and she crawled out and alarmed the police, who captured the villains. Yesterday morning, in the police court, Mr Pemberton denounced the offence as dastardly, and the prisoners having pleaded guilty, he fined them $25 each. . The squaw escaped with a few slight bruises.

J. H. TURNER & Co.'s ALMANAC AND LIST FOR 1868-The proprietors of London House have placed on our table their Almanac and List for 1868. The book is tastefully got up in colors, and besides containing the year's calendar and a list of the firm's goods, has the Colonial Tariff, the cards of a number of Victoria business men, a description of the Paris Exposition and the names of officers of the local Masonic Lodges. The back cover of the book bears a faithful representation of London House.

FRIGHTFULLY INJURED BY A BRAR.—The New Westminster Examiner says that an Indian, at Pitt Lake, who had shot and wounded a bear, was seized by the animal which tore the whole of the back part of the scalp off, bit the poor fellow across the face, smashing in the whole of the nose, and with his claws tore away all the fleshy portions of the Indian's legs, frightfully lacerating the muscles. The poor fellow at last managed to kill the bear, and was found in the woods in a most exhausted state by his friends.

Senselless .- We observe that the New Westminster papers have commenced a senseless crusade against the Surveyor-General, and as an evidence of his "incapacity" point to the state of the Burrard Inlet road. Ten thousand dollars would not put the road in repair, and, thanks to the continuance of the Capital at New Westminster, there is no money in the Treasury to appropriate for the purpose. Instead of laying the blame at Mr Trutch's door, the New Westminster popguns should shoulder it themselves.

Horse Stolen-Wm. Plaskitt, on Monday evening, rode a fine stallion to Esquimalt town and tied him up for half-an-hour in front of an botel. Upon returning to the spot to remount the animal was found to be non est, and neither "hide nor hair" of him has been since seen.

THE CIRCUS .-- The performance last evening was the best of the season. Miss Matild performed her great feat of walking the tight-rope, without difficulty, smid the warm plaudits of the spectators. The house was full. There will be one more performance to-morrow night.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.
J. C. Ayer & Co., Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sursaparilla has done for me.
Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head was painful and following the word of every child. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that anything you made must be good.
I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it fill it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the senb, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what out off saying when I fell you and remain ever gratefully.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes:
'I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alternative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Fennale Discasses of the Scrothous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals if for these female derangements.'

"A dangerous overran tumor on one of the females my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extipation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is usedess here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the eiviized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some fiving trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs-

As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures, which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
